CHARUTAR VIDYA MANDAL

One of the greatest sons of India Late Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel inspired Shri Bhaikaka and Shri Bhikabhai Saheb for rural resurgence of post-independent India through education, and Charutar Vidya Mandal was born. Charutar Vidya Mandal was established in the year 1945 as a charitable trust with a prime objective of rural development through education to bring about the social awakening, social upliftment and enrichment. The uniqueness of Charutar Vidya Mandal lies in its ability to use quality education as a powerful means of social transformation.

The vision, dedication and commitment of the founders of CVM and its subsequent leaders can be seen clearly today in the results of their tireless efforts.

CVM and its institutions have a long history of performance. This can be very well attributed to its dynamic stewardship, activating efforts of principals, the learned and well versed pedagogies, complimentary administrative and office staff and above all, the foresightedness of those who are at the helm of affairs of C.V.M. and the excellent teamwork of all the concerned.

THE INSTITUTE - BJVM

Bhikhabhai Jivabhai Vanijya Mahavidyalaya is named after grandfather of Shri Upendrabhai M. Patel, the Chairman of Shree Dinesh Mills Ltd., Vadodara. Bhikhabhai Jivabhai Patel the donor hailed from village Ode.

The foundation stone of BJVM was laid by Dr. Rajendra Prasad, the First President of India on October 16, 1950 and was inaugurated by Shri Kasturbhai Lalbhai, a renowned industrialist of Gujarat. The college started functioning from June 15, 1951 with an enrolment of 51 students in its B. Com. Course. Over the years, it has grown in all dimensions and has become the torch-bearer in academic field.

Being the pioneer institute, to launch BBA programme in the whole of Western region of India, the college is still very focussed about conducting the Personality and Character Building activities on regular basis. These include tour and adventure, games and athletics, cultural programme, debate, elocution, discussions and lectures, career planning and placement, study visits, Business Battle and field trips.

BJVM has been Re-accredited with 'B' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore.

The college secured an award in the year 1985 from the Government of Gujarat for being the Best Commerce College of the State for the year.
